FERU AND INDIANAFOLIS RAILEOAD.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., MONDAY MORNING, JULY 7, 1862.

In order that the People, the source of power in all constitutional governments, who sincerely desire to perpetuate the Union, as founded and administered by our patriotic fathers, may have the opportunity to condemn these unconstitutional measures; to express their sympathy and their determination to support the Administration in every legitimate effort to crush out treason, "where'er it may rear its head;" to "defend and maintain the supremacy of the Constitution," and to uphold the rights and institutions of all the States unimpaired; to say to those in authority, the servants of the people, what are the legitimate and appropriate means to put down this rebellion; to condemn fraud and corruption and all unconstitutional, illegitimate and unnecessary measures, calculated to weaken instead of strengthening a love and respect for the Union; to re store a wise, just, pure, equal and beneficent administration of the Government, such as the people desire; and to renew the pledge made by the last Demogratic State Convention in behalf of the Democracy of Indiana, "That we will sustain, with all our energies, a war for the maintenance of the Constitution, and of the integrity of the Union under the Constitution; but we are opposed to a war for the emancipation of the negroes, or the subjugation of the Southern States," the Democratic State Central Committee, now ask them to assemble in mass convention. All who desire to see the stars and the stripes float over every inch of American soil in liberty, fraternity and equality; all who insist that the Government shall have a fixed policy in the prosecution of the war, known to the whole country, all who sympathize with the sixty thousand sons of Indiana who have volunteered and are in the field to defend and maintain the Constitution and the Union, and who wish to see them relieved from their arduous duties and exposure of Jeffersonville and Louisville ..... 8:20 P. Convention and co-operate in the attainment of these objects.

While the gallant and patriotic Union men of Kentucky, and other border slave States, have devoted their efforts to preserve the Government as our fathers made it, will not the citizens of Indiana aid, by their counsels and their votes these patriotic citizens in repelling and rolling back the tide of Southern and Northern treason to the Constitution and the Union? For such a purpose we should assemble, and for such a purpose we should, as we do, invite the co-operation expected to address the Convention upon the momentous issues of the day.

Eminent speakers, true and tried patriots, from

of all good citizens.
